

Journal entry: Analyze the image. What do you think is going on? What details stand out to you?

Go back to your analysis from the beginning of class. Using what you've learned in class, revise your original analysis.

Look up Norman Rockwell on your computer. Select one of his images. Your assignment is to analyze one of his images. Please include the image of your choice and your analysis in a document. Once you're done share the document to Makenzie\_mcgalliard@roundrockisd.org. This will count as a daily grade.
